Colonel Reid spoke next. He read from various authorities to show that a motion to reconsider should be recognized within twenty-four hours after the vote was taken.

Some little confusion was created by

Martin of Ada and Nugent of Owvbee reading from different editions of Rob-ers' Rules or Order. Mr. Martin's volume declared that a motion to recon-sider must be made or notice of intention given on the day the original vote is taken. Mr. Nugent's copy of the same rules allowed twenty-four hours
